

The Musician's Monthly

Volume 5 - Issue 5: June 2024

AMDG

INTRODUCTION

This month, we return to Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. The term "Ordinary" is not the best translation of the Latin in the Missal and can be misunderstood to mean that there is "nothing going on" in the Church during this time. The term is better translated as referring to the time when the weeks of the liturgical year are numbered. During Ordinary Time, we are not focusing on or celebrating any particular aspect of Jesus' Life or Ministry. For example, during Advent, we focus on preparing for the coming of Christ at Christmas. During the Christmas Season we focus on the birth of Jesus. During Lent we enter into the desert for forty days just as Jesus did and during the Easter Season we celebrate with joy for fifty days Jesus' rising from the dead. During Ordinary Time, the readings take us through the whole of Jesus' earthly ministry.

Even though we have begun Ordinary Time, the first Sunday of this month is replaced by the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. As we go into Ordinary Time and Winter and come to a slight hiatus in major liturgical celebrations (at least as far as Sundays are concerned), now is a good time to perhaps look ahead to the second half of the year and consider whether there may be any new pieces you would like your musicians and/or congregation to learn. In doing so, you might like to think ahead to Advent and Christmas as well. Mindful of limitations on people's time and that it does take time also for people to learn new music, probably two to three new pieces between now and the end of the year, would be more than enough. Once the musicians have learned the music, the next step is introducing it to the congregation and they need to have heard it a couple of times before joining in with it themselves. Thereafter, they need to sing it two to three times so that they can learn and then feel comfortable singing it. At least five Sundays need to be spent in the choir teaching it to the people and then the people learning it.

With the music suggestions, you will find a full list of suggestions for the Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time and thereafter, beginning on page 18.

We continue to offer workshops to parish musicians and are happy to come and visit your parish if there is a liturgical music topic that you would like further instruction or support on. Please feel free to contact me (see contact details on page 34).

I have listed the workshops for July-September on page 4. They include a workshop on copyright, and two workshops in which we will teach participants Roger Heagney's Festival Mass.

Last month we held our Music Reading Course, which was very successful. We are always pleased to see how, over the weeks of the course, the participants grow in confidence and in their knowledge of reading a music score. Well done to all our participants!

The participants learning to read and understand a musical notation.

The participants putting into practice what they learned by singing.

This month we are holding a Psalmist Training Course at Sacred Heart Parish, Thornlie. I will give a summary of that course in next month's Newsletter. Next term we will be repeating the same course north of the river. We will start that course here at the Centre for Liturgy and see if we might go into a parish for the last two sessions of the course.

Speaking of the Psalmist Training Course, this month I am continuing to examine articles 28 and 29 from Sacrosanctum Concilium in relation to the role of the Psalmist.

This month is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and so as we celebrate His boundless love for us, may we return that love to Him with our preparation and enactment of music in the liturgy as we help the members of the gathered assembly worship the Lord.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Music Workshop

Mass Settings – Festival Mass (I)

DATE & TIME: THURSDAY 5 SEPTEMBER 2024, 7PM-8:30PM
LOCATION: SAINT BENEDICT'S CHURCH, APPLECROSS
CANNING HWY & ARDROSS STREET
COST: $10

In November 2011, the English Translation of the Third Edition of The Roman Missal came into use. This translation required new musical settings of the Ordinary of the Mass (Kyrie, Gloria, Holy, Memorial Acclamations and Lamb of God) to be composed.

Recently, Roger Heagney, who is a renowned composer of liturgical and other music, revised the setting of his Festival Mass which was first published in 1972, to make it consistent with the revised English Translation of the Roman Missal. The revised setting is suitable for cantor and accompaniment or choir and accompaniment. It is a very easy setting, which will be accessible to most parishes regardless of the musical resources they have available.

Participants will be given a legal copy of the music score of each Mass setting and the cost of the workshop will cover the cost of the purchase of this music.

A minimum of 5 people will be required to register for this workshop to be presented.

Please note that participants will need to register by the closing date (Thursday 29 August 2024) so that materials can be prepared for them.

Please fill in and return your registration form to the Centre for Liturgy by:

REFLECTION

As the Psalmist Training Course will be beginning in June, I thought it would be helpful to reflect on articles 28 and 29 from SC, with particular reference to the role of the psalmist.

28. In liturgical celebrations each person, minister or layman, who has an office to perform, should do all of, but only, those parts which pertain to his office by the nature of the rite and the principles of liturgy.

29. Servers, lectors commentators, and members of the choir also exercise a genuine liturgical function. They ought, therefore, to discharge their office with the sincere piety and decorum demanded by so exalted a ministry and rightly expected of them by God's people.

Consequently they must all be deeply imbued with the spirit of the liturgy, each in his own measure, and they must be trained to perform their functions in a correct and orderly manner.

What do the preceding articles from Sacrosanctum Concilium mean?

I have repeated the same two articles from SC that were in last month's Newsletter as there are a couple of other points I would like to add about singing the Responsorial Psalm.

Since each person is only supposed to fulfill the ministry and the parts that pertain to a particular ministry, if we consider the role of the congregation in singing the Responsorial Psalm, their role is to sing the response. Therefore, the tune of the response should be easy enough for people to sing after they have heard it twice, firstly by the organist and then the psalmist singing it. If the tune is so difficult that after hearing it twice people aren't able to catch on and join in singing then it is probably best to find another setting of that response.

Before we get to the people though, the psalmist and the accompanist must be familiar with the music for both the response and the verses. If they are not familiar with the music, the psalm may not be sung correctly and then it will be impossible for the people to learn the response.

The Psalm is both the Word of God and so it should be proclaimed, but it is also a poetic song and as such it should be sung.

PRAYER FOR THE MONTH

June is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In celebrating this Solemnity, we are not celebrating the bodily part or organ of Jesus, but rather His love for us. So during this month, the Litany of the Sacred Heart is an appropriate prayer for us to pray. As we do, we can give thanks to God for sending His Son Jesus to us and for showing us His boundless love.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.
Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.
Christ, graciously hear us.

God the Father of Heaven,

have mercy on us.

God the Son, Redeemer of the world,

have mercy on us.

God, the Holy Spirit,

have mercy on us.

have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, Vessel of justice and love,

have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, full of goodness and love,

have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, Abyss of all virtues,

have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, most worthy of all praise,

have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, King and Centre of all hearts,

have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, in whom are all treasures of wisdom and knowledge,	have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, Source of all consolation,	have mercy on us.
Heart of Jesus, our Life and Resurrection,	have mercy on us.
Heart of Jesus, our Peace and our Reconciliation,	have mercy on us.

Heart of Jesus, Delight of all the Saints,	have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world:	spare us, O Lord.
Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world:	graciously hear us, O Lord.
Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world:	have mercy on us, O Lord.
Jesus, meek and humble of heart.	Make our hearts like to Thine.

Let us pray:

Almighty and eternal God,
look upon the Heart of Your most beloved Son,
and upon the praises and satisfaction
which He renders You in the name of sinners;
and in Your great goodness,
grant pardon to all who seek Your mercy in the Name of Your Son, Jesus Christ,
Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever. Amen.
